HOUSEHOLD INCOME DISCLOSURE

LPTFA First Time Homebuyer Down Payment Assistance Program guidelines requires the disclosure of all HOUSEHOLD INCOME. This includes, but not limited to, child support, alimony, overtime, commission and bonuses for every adult in the household. While certain types of income may not be used by your primary mortgage lender, LPTFA will use all income to calculate the total HOUSEHOLD INCOME.

LPTFA First Time Homebuyers Down Payment Assistance Program income limits can be found on www.lptfa.org.

Please list all members of the household at the time of application. Non-disclosure of household members such as spouse, fiancé, relatives, partner, siblings, etc. may result in the denial of the application and/or non-funding at closing.

I/We certify that I/we have disclosed the income of all persons 18 years of age or older who will reside in the household.

BORROWER'S AUTHORIZATION DISCLOSURE

- Lafayette Public Trust Financing Authority (LPTFA), its successors and/or assigns, employees, agents and authorized representatives, who hold the 2nd mortgage to the property that is purchase through the First Time Homebuyer Down Payment Assistance Program, have the right to obtain any information from the 1st mortgage holder in any circumstances. LPTFA has the right to obtain this information from any institution, including but not limited to, the 1st mortgage holder, title company and appraisal company.
- LPTFA has the right to notify the 1st mortgage holder of any delays in payment of the 2nd mortgage.
- LPTFA has the right to notify all credit agencies of any delays in the payment of the 2nd mortgage.
- LPTFA recommends that a home inspection be conducted by qualified home inspector. The cost of the home inspection is not the responsibility of LPTFA.
- This is a mortgage loan. This is not a grant. If the monthly payments are not made in a timely manner outlined in the promissory note, LPTFA will pursue the maximum collection of this debt allowed by law. This may include: reporting the delinquency to credit report agencies, notifying the 1st mortgage holder, turning the account over to an attorney for collection, and/or issuing the IRS Form 1099-C to the Internal Revenue Service. You will be responsible for any fees associated with collection of this debt.
- LPTFA may call the loan due and payable if you rent, lease or otherwise alienate or transfer the property to any person or entity. This is in effect throughout the entire term of the 2nd mortgage loan.
- If LPTFA has not received the minimum monthly payment by the end of the 10th calendar day after the due date, LPTFA may charge a late fee equaling 10% of your minimum monthly payment.
